DETAILED ACTION

The reply filed 5/26/06 consists of amending claims 1, 9-19, 26, 27, 37, 38, cancellation of claims 14, 28 and remarks related to rejection of claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 31-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by HACK 6,894,461.

Regarding claim 31.

HACK discloses a method for selectively connecting a plurality of voltage input sources that are in electrical connection to a magnetically inductive device, the magnetically inductive device being in an electrical path to at least one load, the method comprising: accepting a signal to select one or more of said plurality of voltage input sources; and based upon said signal, selectively blocking up to All of said plurality of voltage input sources from said magnetically inductive device (figure 3).

Regarding claims 32-36.

See column 5, lines 19-50.
